INTERESTING FEATURES

Daily Vacation Bible School

The scores of children who attend the camp meeting must, also, have a place in the program of activities of the campground. For their interest and spiritual welfare, special services and classes are being arranged by Sister Bernice Mast, the District Sunday School Representative, and Brother Maurice Luce, pastor of the Auburn Assembly and active in gospel work among the boys and girls. They are collaborating in a program designed to present gospel truths to the children, to provide them Christian education, and give them the opportunity to be saved and filled with the Spirit. These activities will be conducted in tents and one of the portable tabernacles brought to the grounds for the purpose. A large corps of able workers will assist in making these meetings not only attractive, but also instructive for the junior members of the campground populace.

Arts and Crafts

Handwork and construction of various articles will be of interest to those children who enjoy this type of expression. This feature will be in conjunction with the Daily Vacation Bible School.

Sunday School

Though absent from their local assembly, those who are at the camp meeting the two Sundays of camp need not miss the study of the weekly Sunday school lesson. A large Sunday school will be conducted for all ages. Pastor R. C. Fulmer of the local campground church will be the superintendent, and will enjoy having the largest Sunday school in the District for the two Sundays.

Prayer Room

At the back of the platform in the main tabernacle is situated the prayer room which is being enlarged this year to accommodate many more than could get in for the prayer services formerly. At any and all hours of the day and night there are people in the prayer room waiting upon the Lord in prayer.

Orchestra

Music has no small part in our Pentecostal services, and in camp meetings it is always a very special blessing as the musicians from the various assemblies gather together and play their instruments as unto the Lord. All those who play are requested to bring their instruments and use them in the great meetings in the tabernacle.

Playground

A children's playground and nursery will be conducted again this year. It will be in charge of mothers competent in caring for the little ones. Swings, slides, and other playground equipment are provided to interest the small children and to make the camp enjoyable for them. This also provides a place for mothers of small children to leave them for a while as they enjoy the services in the tabernacle.

CAMP FACILITIES

Office

The office is located at the entrance to the campground. Arrangements for all accommodations and all business transactions with the management are made through this office.

Dining Room

Meals are served cafeteria style in the dining hall which accommodates 200 people at a time. Full course dinners and cold lunches will be served, as well as salads and desserts. Such meals as rationing will permit will be provided. The cost of meals, including coffee or iced tea, will be 40c again this year. An extra charge will be made for desserts. Mrs. A. R. Mount will be in charge of the dining room service again. Mrs. L. E. Murray, assisted by Alice Rice and others, will be in charge of the kitchen, preparing the good meals that we have become accustomed to obtain in the dining hall.

Luncheonette

Next to the drinking fountains on the main thoroughfare at the front of the grounds, is "The Spot," well known for its good milk shakes and hamburgers. Ice cream and candy, as it can be obtained, will be available. A large delicious milk shake will be 15c plus tax.

Store

Groceries, bakery goods, fruits and vegetables may be purchased at the camp store at prices prevailing in other stores. This accommodation will save time and transportation for those who will be doing their own cooking. If it is your intention to patronize the store, don't forget to bring your ration books.

Service Station

Mohawk gasoline and oil may be purchased at our service station near the gate. Of course, ration coupons will be required.

Bookstand

Christian literature, mottoes, books, and Bibles at various prices will be stocked as far as possible. It is expected that we shall have a good stock to choose from, and to meet the needs of our Pentecostal fellowship. Those serving in the bookstand will gladly help you in the selection of books on hand, or accept orders for books you may desire to obtain.

Post Office

All incoming mail to the campground will be handled through the post office department maintained for that purpose. All mail should be addressed in care of St. Helena Campground, P. O. Box 393, St. Helena, California.

Telephone

A private telephone booth adjoins the dining hall. Long distance calls can be placed there, and telegrams sent. Those desiring to call the St. Helena Campground should call the camp office, phone St. Helena 329. Incoming calls will be taken care of day and night.

Electricity

Because the cost of lighting the grounds and public buildings is so great, it is necessary to make a charge for electric current used in tents for lighting and for electric appliances of all kinds. The cost is nominal, and is arranged for at the time accommodations are arranged for.

Laundry

Laundry trays and two electric washing machines and ironing boards are available for those who wish to do light washing and pressing. A charge is made for the use of the washing machines and ironing facilities. Bring your own electric iron. Reservations for the use of these facilities are made at the camp office.

Positively no reservations will be made for minors. They MUST be accompanied by parents or guardians. CAMPGROUND COMMITTEE.

ACCOMMODATIONS

Cottages and Tents

As our limited number of cottages and cabins are already rented, tents are the only accommodation we can offer again this year. The tents, 10 x 12 or 12 x 14, will be available, as in the past, for $3.50 a week, or $6 for the season. (See the order blank.)

Dormitories

There will be the two dormitories, one for men and one for women. Reservations in either can be had for 75c a night or $5 for a week. Bedding is provided for the individual beds. For reduced rates, bring your own sheets and pillow cases.

House Trailers

Space is provided in a reserved section for those who plan to bring their house trailers. A charge of $1.50 a week is made for occupation of such space. For the season, the charge will be $2.50. (See order blank.)

Camping Space

For those who bring their own tents and camping equipment, a charge of $1.50 a week, $2.50 for the season, is made for camping privilege in the special section reserved for that purpose. (See order blank.)

Other Provisions

Individual cot beds may be rented for 75c a week, or $1.50 for the season. Double beds will rent for $1 a week, $2 for the season.

Straw ticks, filled for double or single beds, may be secured for 50c a week, or $1 for the season. (See order blank.)

INFORMATION

What to Bring With You

Bring your own bedding, including pillows, pillow cases, sheets, and blankets or quilts. Mirrors, wash basins, towels, and toilet articles should be brought. Buckets for carrying water should also be included in your equipment.

Don't Bring Pets

Dogs are not allowed on the grounds during camp meeting.

Express and Freight

Freight can be sent by Southern Pacific via Pacific Motor Transport. American Raliway Express also makes camp deliveries.

Transportation

If it is possible, bring your car, or come with a friend. It will be well to make every effort to pool the transportation facilities. The Greyhound bus system serves St. Helena and buses stop at the campground gate upon request.

The campground is situated just inside the southern limits of the city of St. Helena, directly on Highway 29.

Sanitation

Campers are expected to keep their tents and surroundings free from papers, garbage, and trash of any kind. Receptacles are provided to help maintain cleanliness. Special attention must always be given to maintaining a high standard of sanitation, not only because everyone enjoys it that way, but because of the great crowd living under camping conditions.

A LIFTER OR LEANER

Wherever you go you will find the world's masses

Are ever divided in just these two classes.

And strangely enough you will find, too,
I ween,

There is only one lifter to twenty who lean.

In which class are you? Are you easing the load

Of overtaxed lifters who toil down the road?

Or, are you a leaner who lets others bear
Your portion of worry and labor and care?

If love to God does not find a field for its manifestation in active love to man, worship in the temple will be mockery."

Day of Prayer

Sunday, June 17, has been designated as a day of prayer in the churches of our District, to pray for the camp meeting which will begin June 26. It is always expected that a gathering of this kind will be a time of great blessing; and so far we have not been disappointed. The ministry of the speakers, the prayer, the praises and thanksgiving to the Lord, the music, and the fellowship enjoyed one with the other, have all combined to lift us up in soul and spirit, to whet our appetites for spiritual things, to strengthen our determination to be of better service to the Master, to live and walk in the Spirit of God. In these days, more than ever before, there is recognized a need for revival, a revival in our land, a revival in our midst. Let us pray for this coming camp meeting, that in every heart there shall be the beginning of the revival we need, not for the duration of the camp, but in the days to follow, that every assembly and every community may be blessed with the blessing of the blessed.

Extra GLAD TIDINGS

Church secretaries, please note that additional numbers of this special issue of GLAD TIDINGS have been mailed to the churches for a wider distribution of camp meeting news. There will be no added charge for the extra papers. However, it is expected that each church will pay for the regular monthly quota in the usual way. See that every member or friend of the church gets a copy so far as is possible.

THE PATH OF LIFE!

Radio message by Evangelist Lorne F. Fox, of the Fox Party of Canada

From Psalm sixteen and verse eleven we read the inspiring words: "Thou wilt show me the path of life; in Thy presence is fullness of joy, at Thy right hand there are pleasures forevermore." May we focus our attention on the words "Thou wilt show me the path of life!" The Psalmist dwelt on this theme, for he desired that God might reveal to him the way of life eternal. Today, every person redeemed in the blood of the Lamb may rejoice in the path of life in Christ that leads from earth to eternal glory. The redeemed of the Lord do not testify to the Christian life as being one composed only of duty or hardship. Neither is it a burden to serve the Lord Jesus! The world's happiest people are not those who own the most palatial homes in the land, or who possess the greatest material wealth. In fact, some of the happiest people I know today are actually poor in this world's goods, but they are rich in the grace and power of God. They have Christ! In this span of human life there are many things we can get along without, but if we have Christ we are indeed richer than America's millionaires! The man who seeks the Lord with all his heart shall find; to the man who knocks the door shall be opened. The one who digs deeply shall come upon the gold of salvation, the silver of God's matchless grace, and the gems of His divine power!

First, in order to partake of this life in Christ it is necessary to die completely to sin and self. This is beyond the realm of human possibility, but we do know that Christ is still able to perform such a miracle in the heart of man. The Lord once said, "Ye must be born again," and while earth's men of greatest learning have never been able to explain the mystery—the miracle connected with the spiritual birth—yet, we know beyond a shadow of a doubt that the Man who once said, "Ye must be born again," is abundantly able to lift up the fallen, care for the dying, and save to the uttermost. Will you realize, friend, that it is at the cross where you find the path of life eternal. It is there, through the power of the atoning blood, that old things pass away and all things become new. An old life of sin dies; a new life is born, a pure, righteous life in Christ

Jesus. In the Word we read, "Christ liveth in me." This is the secret of true salvation. "Christ within you the hope of glory." At Calvary, the Redeemer opened an avenue of communion between God and man. He opened there, a path of life for "whosoever," starting at bloodstained Calvary, ending one day at His Father's throne in glory!

Will you consider with me, a few of the deeper aspects of this path of life in Christ? For one thing, the way of life is a path of SEPARATION. How tragic to see some folks who struggle to cling to Christ with one hand, and to the world with the other. It cannot be done! It is impossible to live a consecrated Christian life and a worldly life at the same time. You cannot mix oil and water. Even so, it is out of the question to live a life separated unto the Lord, and at the same time have fellowship with the things of sin. In these unholy days of iniquity and sin just prior to the Lord's coming, God is calling His blood-washed people to a new walk of separation. We are constantly confronted with men and women who profess to serve the Lord, but they are still in bondage to habit. This condition often exists when men and women haven't given themselves over wholly to God. It is not sufficient to merely say, "Have Thine own way, Lord"—we must mean it, and prove it by surrendering the entire man, body, soul and spirit. Only then do we experience the full benefits of salvation, and the joy of knowing that the world no longer holds any attraction. Late in life, General Booth of the Salvation Army was asked the secret of his success, and of his happy Christian experience. The General replied, "I have given all there was of me to God."

This way of life is also a path of FAITH. Do we not read in the Word that "the righteous shall live by faith"? Yet we often give the impression as Christians, that we live entirely by feeling. In every life there will arise those circumstances that will seem impossible to surmount. God has not asked you to do the impossible. He has not asked you to perform a miracle. He only asks you to do that which you can; then trust Him for the rest. Once, in the days of the long ago when God's people were faced with the seemingly impossible, God spoke in no uncertain terms saying, "The Lord shall fight for you, and ye shall hold your peace." Have faith in God, friend. The sun will shine again, the clouds will break. He has promised you strength as you need it to go through. Were there no tests along this path of life, there would be no occasion to manifest active faith. This I know, if we will implicitly trust God when the way is hard, He will give divine strength in place of human weakness, and faith to sing the song of victory in the midst of the darkest night. Don't allow circumstances or conditions around you to control your joy in the Lord. Rejoice in the Lord! Don't question when you can't understand; remember—"it is not mine to question the leadings of my Lord. . . . BUT, if Jesus goes with me, I can go anywhere!" That is faith.

We are reminded, too, that this way of life is a path of FRIENDSHIP. There never was a friend like Jesus. Others may fail, but Jesus never! In walking this path of life with the Lord, there are times when you tell Him things you would never breathe to anyone else. And somehow we know that Jesus always understands. Friendship with Jesus is fellowship divine. You have known nothing of true friendship until the Man with the nail-pierced hands has walked by your side along the path of life, and you two have communed together. He understands the inmost longing and craving of your soul. Only the fullness of His presence can satisfy. In the darkest hour of trial and grief, His sympathetic ear is bent low to hear your faintest whisper. When

The President

Suddenly and unexpectedly, our late President, Franklin D. Roosevelt, was taken from us. Apart from the consideration of politics and policies, the nation as a whole has an interest in the affairs of state at such a time as this, when the hand at the helm of the ship of state is removed and replaced by another. His passing is a solemn hour. Our country has lost a leader whose place on the page of history will always be a prominent one.

But we are in a democracy, a great democracy, which, when losing one leader, can quickly produce another. The common man has his share in the maintenance of this land of liberty, by exercising his rights as a citizen, by being law-abiding, and with his loyalty. Beyond all this, the Christian has another portion to share, an added responsibility: he knows how to pray. Let him pray for his country, for the new leader, President Harry S. Truman. It is natural that changes will be made, far-reaching decisions will have to be made, and preparations for peace will be more delicate than the preparations for war. Divine wisdom is needed in these days in a greater measure than ever before. Does it seem useless? We remind you of 1 Tim. 2:1-3: "I exhort therefore, that, first of all, supplications, prayers, intercessions, and giving of thanks, be made for all men; For kings, and for all that are in authority; that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and honesty. For this is good and acceptable in the sight of God our Saviour."

your heart is broken and your soul is crushed, the Mender of broken hearts is there to bind it up and heal with His own matchless tender touch. He can take away the sting of sorrow, for He is the healer divine. Only Jesus can do all this—but He is able. He is still the Friend of sinners, too. How oft have we seen Him pass the way of the man or woman bound, fettered by sin and its vice and habit. How oft have we seen Him break the fetters that bind the captive and set him free. He remains faithful unto the end, for He has promised never to leave nor forsake. In dark days such as these, the friendship of Jesus is indispensable.

In conclusion, will you look on this path of life as a walk of HOLINESS. We are solemnly counselled that "without holiness no man shall see God."

Only God Is Great

These verses were read at a memorial service held in Glad Tidings Temple, San Francisco, and broadcast over KSAN, on the day of the funeral service of the late President Franklin Delano Roosevelt (April 14).

Our nation draped in mourning is today,

For he who steered our ship of state has died;

From earth his hasty flight he winged away,—

But truth and liberty, and God, abide!

Some things can perish not, though men may die,

Though they who cherish them may cease to be,

May close their eyes beneath God's stars on high,

And cease on earth to speak and hear and see.

He who this day lies lifeless in his place,

Around whose bier are gathered saddened souls,

Has fought his warfare, and has run his race,

And o'er our land a surge of sorrow rolls.

He his last speech has made; no "fireside chat"

Of his, in future days, our ears shall hear;

God thus would teach a humbled nation that

'Tis vain to trust in flesh—God we should fear!

Where is the place his power was not felt?

Who is the man who has not heard his name?

Born for our age and day was Roosevelt;

Looms large on history's page his lasting fame.

Though men may rise in mortal man's esteem,

And here may occupy man's highest post,

Though of achievements vast his soul may dream,

While of his victories won his friends may boast,

Death lurks behind the scenes to lay him low,

And he may strike man knows not how or when;

Though rich or great, none can elude his blow;

Each falls, and falls a helpless victim, then!

Flag draped, the copper casket yonder lies,

Within the portals of the White House doors!

The man whom earth neglects, or praises, dies!

No soul stays long upon these mundane shores!

Oh, would that in this crisis we might learn

That God is He who doth our value rate!

And may He help this nation now to turn,

And seek His face, for ONLY GOD IS GREAT.

J. Narver Gortner.

The motto of every Spirit-filled child of God today, more than ever, should be "Holiness unto the Lord!" In speaking of holiness, I do not refer particularly to the subject of dress or exterior appearance. I don't believe my Lord is particularly interested as to whether a man wears his tie in front, behind, or doesn't wear one at all. We refer primarily to a holiness that begins down deep in the heart. A heart holiness that begins in the soul of the believer, when the purging, refining fires of the Holy Ghost are allowed to consummate their purifying process. If we love the Lord and His holiness as we profess, we would rather die than become a disgrace to His cause. Holiness must begin on the altar of the heart. Though we struggle hard to come up to man's standards of holiness, and fix ourselves to please the ideas and whims of others, yet the heart of man can still remain black in the sight of God. The brand of holiness that testifies to beginning on the outside of man seldom brings glory to the cause of Christ in any measure. But the holiness that works from the inside out—which is the working of God's Spirit—will not only APTOS—Evangelists Bernice Schliecker and Lavonne Dahl are in a good meeting with Pastor Ralph Ware, enjoying a full house most of the time.

AUBURN—Evangelist and Mrs. Wesley F. Pope are scheduled to conduct a campaign for Pastor M. H. Luce in May.

BOONVILLE—Mrs. Pearl Dutro, Church Secretary, reporting on the three weeks meeting held there by Evangelist Bernice Schliecker and her co-worker, Lavonne Dahl, writes: "This has been one of the best revivals we ever had. We thank God for the way He blessed. . . . A number came to the altar for salvation. The church was greatly revived and those of other churches attended the services." D. W. Morrow is the pastor.

CERES—Evangelist George S. Koontz, of the Southern California District, held a good two weeks meeting for Pastor S. G. Cox, closing April 15.

CHICO—From March 18 to April 1, Evangelists E. J. Holmes and T. G. Jackson held meetings for Pastor P. E. Radley, with very good results. There was a good interest throughout the meetings, and several were saved. A special feature of the meetings was a sacred concert given by Brother Jackson on Good Friday evening.

CHOWCHILLA—District Superintendent W. T. Gaston will officiate and be the main speaker at the dedication of the new church recently erected on the corner of Fourth and Orange Streets. It is a building 62 x 30 feet in size. It cannot be completed at the present, but it will be used for services in its unfinished condition, with a sawdust floor. Later on, they will stucco the outside of the building, ceil the inside of it, and put in a floor. The church has been incorporated, and good progress is being made in its development. Evangelist Joseph B. Garland is holding a campaign there at the present. R. E. Henke is the pastor.

CLEAR CREEK—Pastor George Ney has left the work there and gone to Raymond, Washington. Pastor Wesley Bliss of Somesbar is taking care of the work in Clear Creek as well as his other charge.

CORNING—The Full Gospel Assembly of Corning was opened the first part of February by a small group of Pentecostal people in the community. After three weeks of good revival meetings, Brother Stanley Walsh was called as pastor. Brother Perry Callahan, church secretary, reports that the assembly now has a lot on which to build fully paid for, a piano, 200 chairs, and other necessary equipment. The Sunday school is running 40 and over in attendance. Many have been to the altar for salvation, and five have received the baptism of the Holy Spirit.

COVELO—A three-weeks revival was held jointly by the Assembly of God Church and the Reservation Mission. Evangelist T. B. Don Carlos, with his co-worker, Carl Olson, was the evangelist. Over 30 were saved or reclaimed, and 20 were baptized with the Holy Ghost. The sick were healed, one outstanding case being that of a young girl who had tuberculosis of the spine for two years, and had been confined to her bed most of that time. She had been sent home to die, but the Lord laid His healing hand upon her, baptized her with the Holy Ghost, and she was healed and able to walk to the meetings, attending every service afterward with great rejoicing. The two churches were greatly revived; many people attended for the first time, and the community at large was stirred as the glory of God was manifest in every service. V. A. Graham is the pastor of the Assembly of God Church; Mrs. Mildred G. Charles is pastor of the Missionary Pentecostal Indian Mission.

DELHI—Brother Harold Persing, who has been ministering in Oregon for the past several years, is the new pastor.

FERNDALE—Evangelist and Mrs. Wesley F. Pope held a meeting for Pastor Warren V. Pine during the week preceding Easter.

The blessing of the Lord was enjoyed in both services.

HIGHWAY CITY—Pastor Ralph Gaither reports having a very good meeting with Evangelist J. G. Garland, Compton, California. During the three and a half weeks of the meetings, about 15 were saved, and five received the baptism of the Holy Spirit. After the special meetings had closed, the following Sunday evening, two more were filled with the Spirit. About 35 have been saved since Brother Gaither became pastor in November, 1944.

KERMAN—On March 18, Evangelist Maurice Contreras concluded a successful meeting in which a number were saved and one filled with the Holy Spirit. Pastor H. D. Byram reports: "The entire church was helped by it, as well as the fact that all enjoyed the fine messages of the evangelist. The church was host, on March 19, to the South San Joaquin fellowship meeting which was quite well attended in the afternoon service, and had a packed house in the evening service at the close of which 11 sought the Lord for salvation. Brother A. B. Cox of Dayton, Ohio, brought the afternoon message; Pastor Edward Byram of Hanford, California, was the evening speaker."

KLAMATH—The new church was dedicated at the fellowship meeting held there April 2, Superintendent W. T. Gaston officiating. Easter Sunday was the opening day in the new building, and it was a day, or very good attendance and or blessing in the Sunday school and in both services. N. K. Ingram is the pastor.

In April, Evangelist Lloyd Jetter conducted a campaign during which a good number of souls were saved and many received the baptism of the Holy Spirit.

MODESTO (Dethel)—Dr. Kinnaman gave two lectures on biblical Archaeology the latter part of March. His lantern slides made of pictures taken in Palesine, Mesopotamia, Egypt, and other lands, were an interesting part of the lectures. D. G. Weston is pastor.

MODESTO (6th and G)—Evangelist A. Buckley from Los Angeles, held a good three weeks meeting there in April. Pastor Walter Larson reports that 25 were filled with the Spirit, and 12 or 15 were saved. The Church has recently been incorporated. They have bought a parsonage at a cost of $5000 and completely furnished it.

MOUNTAIN VIEW—Brother E. J. Parfitt is starting a new work in the American Legion Hall in that city.

MT. SHASTA—Brother Jess Gunder is the new pastor.

NAPA—Pastor J. B. Stark reports that nine were saved, three received the baptism of the Holy Spirit, and the Sunday school attendance increased 40% during the meetings held by Evangelists Dorothy Fowler and Myrtle McBride.

OAKLAND (First Church)—Evangelist John Bostrom has been holding a good meeting for Pastor C. F. Ferguson since April 3.

OAKLAND (Revival Tabernacle)—Pastor H. J. Ketner has resigned and is succeeded by Cecil J. Lowry, who is from Denver, Colo.

OLIVEHURST—Evangelist Maurice Contreras began a meeting for Pastor Melvin Hartman on April 8.

ORLAND—Evangelists Holmes and Jackson held a ten-day meeting there early in April. Ray Parks is the pastor.

PALO ALTO—The Peninsula fellowship meeting was held in Glad Tidings Tabernacle on April 9, which was the first day of a two-day missionary meeting. Arnold Weston and Arthur Erickson were the main speakers in these services. R. J. Renfroe is the pastor.

By the Superintendent

There is a note of joy in our hearts as we set about making preparations for the annual camp meeting. There is a definite sense of hunger throughout the District, and from all indications, we will have the largest attendance ever. Preparations are under way for added facilities for the comfort and convenience of our guests, and I feel safe in predicting that you are going to enjoy the St. Helena camp more than ever.

Brother Arne H. Vick, widely known evangelist, and, at present, pastor of a thriving church in North Hollywood, California, is to be our evening speaker. Brother Vick is a fiery preacher of the old-time gospel. His messages will grip you, and give you that lift you have been needing.

We are fortunate, too, in securing the services of Brother L. R. Keys, pastor of Glad Tidings Temple, San Francisco, for the last week of the camp. He will be preaching in the morning service each day. Other voices will be heard from the pulpit from time to time during this great convocation, so let us be encouraged, and encourage others; good things in abundance are in store.

These past months have brought strain and stress to everyone. Long hours of hard work, and, in many cases without the weekly day of rest. Would it not be well to begin at once to plan your vacation for camp meeting time, and combine spiritual refreshing with physical rest and recreation. I, personally, hope that it will be possible to shorten the day services somewhat in order to give more time for relaxation.

Among the blessings to be derived from such a period, a few might be listed. First, sorely needed rest from the dull grind of a heavy schedule. Second, recreation that brings a change and a welcome release from monotony and that heavy sense of "sameness." Third, renewing old friendships, making new ones, and enjoying sweet concourse together. Fourth, having our minds and hearts instructed until we exclaim, like those in Bible times, "we never saw it on this wise before!" Fifth, and most meaningful of all, is to have our hearts moved and stirred and filled by the ever-blessed Spirit, until new vistas of faith are open to us, and we are strengthened with might by His Spirit in the inner man.

Looking forward to this season of refreshing, may I venture a few suggestions. First, that we examine ourselves as to our personal hunger for God. It is still true that only "they that hunger and thirst after righteousness, shall be filled." Second, while consecrated men are devoting much labor in preparing the camp for the happy worshippers that will soon be wending their way toward the old familiar spot, would it not be fitting for a great host of others to help prepare by prayer and supplication for a truly great and spiritual summer camp. Good preaching and good music will not be enough; the most imperative need of all is that the power of God will be present to save and heal and clothe believers with power for service. Let us pray and look for such a general effusion of the Spirit, that young and old will be so mellowed and sanctified by His glory that we will return to our homes and churches with new life and vigor.

Leland Johnson

Brother Leland Johnson, Superintendent of the Philippine Assemblies of God, was a welcome visitor at the District office on April 11. He and Sister Johnson and their family had arrived from the Philippines the week before after three years internment in Bilibid Prison. We were happy to see him looking so well after the long ordeal. He had regained much weight and but a few days before had been able to resume wearing shoes. Sister Johnson had not yet so fully recovered and had gone south to be with her father, Brother A. L. Branch.

Personal Mention

Two Summer Conferences Planned!

As far back as 1940 when it was first suggested, many of our pastors and local presidents have been hoping for the time when our Christ's Ambassadors might have their own summer camp conferences. Until this year, however, nothing definite or concrete has been done about such a project.

For the past few months considerable effort has been put forth to obtain suitable locations for camps of this nature. Several places were suggested which were not desirable; but at last we have obtained two definite camps that are ideal. The first is the Redwood Camp on the Mount Hermon grounds. This Christian camp has been operating for a number of years, and great and lasting results have attended each conference year. The facilities have been made available for the accommodation of over 200 young people. These facilities include cabins, chapel areas, and recreational facilities. The Peninsula and Coast Counties sections will attend this camp.

The second conference will be at Zephyr Point, located at the northeastern end of Lake Tahoe. This is a most favorable location with cabin, chapel, recreation and dining hall facilities for 350. The South Sacramento and Nevada sections will attend this camp.

The cost for each person at both these fine camps will be very nominal.

Conference Plans

These planned conferences will be different from the usual camp meeting. After morning devotions and breakfast, two one-hour classes are scheduled with Pastor Leland R. Keys, of Glad Tidings, teaching each. He will be giving a series of lessons under two main topics: (a) Meeting Youth's Peculiar Problems, and (b) Making Life Worthwhile. It would be worthwhile if our young people attended only for the profit derived from these lessons.

Afternoons will be set aside for recreation, closing each evening with musical vespers after which we'll have a good, sound evangelistic service.

Not to Take the Place of Camp Meeting

It is not intended, nor do we want our youth to consider, that these camps are to take the place of camp meeting. There is a very real need for an opportunity for our "families" to gather together, mother, dad, and children, to worship the Lord in an atmosphere especially designed for such. Too, our annual C. A. convention and business meeting will be held during the camp meeting. We urge all our youth to attend camp meeting commencing June 26.

Not Available to All

Since this is the beginning of our effort to obtain summer conference camps available to all our youth, each will recognize that the facilities now available are, of necessity, limited. Since this is the case, with reluctance and apologies we say that the sub-sections within the proximities of these two camps will first be contacted to obtain the necessary quota, and should these sub-sections not be able to obtain the necessary number, then we shall make an effort to obtain the remainder from the next nearest section.

We are indeed sorry that this is the case and we trust that all will realize with us that it is not our intention that it should be this way. Our plan is that next year these camps will be made available to all.

Finally, above everything, we want our C. A.'s to realize that these conference camps are primarily for the purpose of drawing us closer to Him. We cannot expect that these camps shall grow and continue unless they first of all are for the spiritual awakening of every one of us. Let us pray, work, and plan now that He will have the preeminence in the directing and furthering of our summer conference camps.

SUNDAY SCHOOL

By MRS. BERNICE MAST, District Sunday School Representative

Making the Gospel Attractive to the Adolescent

Someone has said, "Win for Christ at grammar school age; gain life service decisions at high school age; and train for life service at the college age."

A questionnaire was sent to 1,500 preachers, asking them their age when converted. The average age of conversion was twelve years. Therefore, we conclude that after the conversion at the approximate age of 12, (taking it for granted that we are endeavoring to follow the rule in the first paragraph) there must be something very vital to hold our young folks through adolescence.

Even though an adolescent has had a definite experience of salvation at an early age, yet, in his present period of life there is a natural dividing of interests: between spiritual and social. At this point, in many cases, the division of interests becomes overbalanced with a decided tendency toward the social side. Without spiritual supervision and understanding on the part of a leader, the spiritual is soon forgotten; and their lives are one round after another of social affairs.

The suggestion was made, to endeavor to lead the adolescent into a "life service decision" for Christ; if he were saved earlier in life.

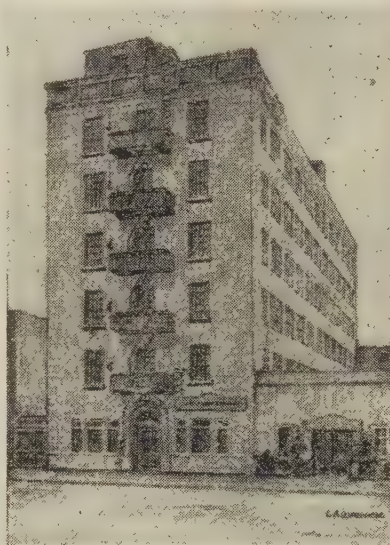

The truth of the matter is that the gospel of salvation, the gospel of Christian living, the gospel of service to Christ, is for the adolescent! In childhood, it is definitely for the child! In adulthood, the gospel just fits them! In truth, it is suitable for every age, at that certain time and period!

The difference? Food, sometimes, has to be prepared a little differently for the different ages around the family table; so, also, the gospel must be made attractive to the various ages, especially to the adolescent, to balance his interests as well as to keep his social interest clean.

Help the adolescent with his "sense of value" concerning the gospel; help him to realize that it is imperative in his life. He cannot live without it; he cannot be a success without it! You need not "dress up" the gospel—it is dressed up! It has its heroes and heroines; it has its thrills; it has the supernatural! Help the adolescent to see it!

Present the gospel in all of its own attractiveness, with enthusiasm yourself.

Hundreds Lost

Lost:

Not lives, not souls, but names and addresses of hundreds of our alumni have been lost from our records. Some have moved, some have married, some have just failed to contact us for so long that to us they are lost. Won't you help us to find them, please! Just drop us a card with the names and addresses of any graduate from Glad Tidings, whose address you think we may not know.

Last Seen:

At various stations of Christian service all over the state, the nation, and the world.

Description:

They are distinguished by the scars of many spiritual conflicts. Sometimes they are wont to congregate where the presence and power of Christ is appreciated; they revel in the unhindered manifestation of the Holy Spirit. In remote places and dangerous, wherever souls

You are your pupil's best object lesson; if it works attractively in your life, he will want it in his.

Present this living gospel to the adolescent as a challenge! It has its conditions to meet! A challenge stirs young blood. Being a real Christian is an opportunity for vital success!

The teaching of the gospel of service to Christ should open opportunities of Christian activity for the adolescent. Keep him busy for the gospel. The adolescent makes a real worker—make the gospel attractive to him!

ALUMNITEMS

are in need they may be found. There will be a conspicuous absence of the marks, mannerisms, and motives of the world. They will never resort to the places of sinful pleasure, but follow only the paths of righteousness.

Reward:

For any information leading to their discovery, we will immediately pay 10,000 thanks and an inestimable amount of sincere gratitude.

If you are a member of the alumni of Glad Tidings Bible Institute, there will be the additional reward of increasing the attendance of our reunions and of cementing the gaps in our fellowship which time has brought.

We are looking forward to a great reunion on the old campground at St. Helena during the last week of June. Be sure to come yourself, and don't forget to tell all your friends. There will be a place for the alumni to register at the Glad Tidings booth, and perhaps we can all get together on Glad Tidings day for a dinner and a time of fellowship. Until then, God bless you all, and don't forget to pray for your old Alma Mater.

Best wishes and sincere prayers,
CHARLES SMITH, Secretary,
G.T.B.I. Alumni Assn.,
1441 Ellis St., San Francisco.

Prayer is work, exacting work, humbling work, self-emptying work, and very few can stand the test. Therefore, very few make a daily habit of prayer.

Scotch preacher's prayer: "O Lord, guide us aright, for we are verra, verra determined."

W. M. C. Report

The Women's Missionary Council groups of the East Bay met at Glad Tidings Church in Alameda on March 22 under the able leadership of Mrs. Ruben Wilson, Chairman. The morning was spent in a time of devotion, and Sister Ruth Melching, returned missionary from Manchuria, gave a very interesting talk. Mrs. C. F. Ferguson of the First Pentecostal Church of Oakland was the afternoon speaker. Luncheon was served by the Alameda W.M.C. Among other things presented at the meeting was a list of things Brother and Sister O. L. Foth will need as they go to India this fall.

On April 10 the women of the Berkeley Assembly, where Mrs. Eleanor Johnson is pastor, reorganized their W.M.C., elected officers and made plans for the coming year.

There will be W.M.C. meetings during camp meeting and new and used things can be brought or sent to the Women's Missionary Council, c/o Mrs. Paul Couchman, St. Helena Campground, St. Helena, California, for distribution to home and foreign missionaries and Christian workers.

We trust you are watching for and enjoying what our district leaders are writing in each month for GLAD TIDINGS. Keep up the interest in your local groups; there is much to do.

Mrs. R. J. Thurmond, Director.

glorify the Lord, but will act as a means of reproof and conviction even on the lives of the unsaved. May the Lord forbid that we should ever sing with impure lips and hearts, "Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God Almighty!" May God make us holy as He is holy; pure as He is pure.

Without a doubt we are nearing the end of life's pathway. Though we are in the world, yet we are not of it. We have been bought with a price not of silver or gold—but with the divine blood of the Prince of Glory we have been redeemed. The fount of cleansing is still open wide; the blood has never lost its power. There is no man so ruined by sin but that the Lord Jesus can and will cleanse that heart whiter than snow.

Soon the redeemed of the Lord will hear the call to higher ground, for Jesus is coming soon. Soon we shall stand before our Father's throne up yonder. Right now the most worthwhile thing in human life is to live for Christ. In the Christian way there will be trials, there will be tests; there will be times of storm, but in Christ there is victory, there are joys in the Christian way that the world can never hope to offer. Heaven is just ahead, and somehow I know that when we look into the face that was once crowned with thorns—now crowned with eternal glory, "the trials of the road will seem nothing" for we shall see Him as He is, the King in all His Glory!

Do You Know Why?

(See Psalm 39:1)

Our ears and mouth are useful things,
Which fact you are aware of;
For listening, and talking, too.

You no doubt do your share of.

Now here's another fact: our ears

Are made wide open, but

There must be some good reason why

Our mouth is made to shut!
